AMERICAN TROOPS ARE HAVING A HANDY MAN AROUND THE HOUSE . BY BRIGGS WENTER INTENSIVE TRAINING AT HOME

The first detachment of American troops has moved inland from the French port where it landed and has eatered a training comp belind the battle lines for its last intensive training. Other detachments will follow until the last of the expeditionary forces are there, getting the final lessons in the mest modern warfare.

Soon other transports, conveyed by warships, will be crossing the wear said the troops they carry occoss the Atlantic will take their final course in preparation for war. It will be a continual inpouring of American troops into Europe until the war is wen.

Our troops have a great deal to learn, we are informed. Yes, but they are learning moter rapidly than most people imagine. Americans are in for an agreeable surprise when they find how soon our troops can be made ready for war.

The Associated Press correspondent at the British front in France sent a story recently to the effect that the British had discovered that machine gans could be used fire and that their medialness had been greatly increased when it was found that they could be adjusted for indirect fire, that previously all nations be in the chosest contact with the tiring line to keep posted in all the changes in tarties, and this was one of the lessans American treops would have to learn.

Machine gun indirect fire may be one of the latest novelties on the British front, but it has been stught for manths at the school of fire at Port Sill, Oklahoma, when the production of the population of they great the copyer of the assertion that troops must be the school of fire at Port Sill, Oklahoma, when the production of the sales of the school of fire at Port Sill, Oklahoma, when the production of the sales difference in they cannot be made they be adjusted to indirect increase to the school of fire at Port Sill, Oklahoma, when the production of the sales of the school of fire at Port Sill, Oklahoma, when the production of the sales differed to the mailtary students are tanglet such accurately in the sale of the school of fire at Port Sill,

It may bring the war a trifle closer home to state that a French officer is giving valuable instruction to the troops in the Brownstille district, of whom one El Paso unit, company K, forms part.

How that American troops in Europe and at home are making these preparations for our participation in the war, and now that about 650,000 more are soon to be chosen by the selective draft to begin the same kind of training, it is well to realize that our entry into this war was more or less insertiable, for the principles for which we shall be fighting are those upon which this nation is founded. They are summed up in a tribute which justice. Harlan of the supreme court of the United States once paid to the American flag, in which be said:

"To every true American the flag signifies government rashing on the consent of the governed; liberty regulated by law; the protection of the weak against the strong; security against the exercise of arbitrary power; and absolute safety of free institutions against foreign aggression."

Bill's a goner, with him who plied the deadity gun they'll led me share the honor. When I'm declared too fat to fight, I do not sulk or gramble; I say, "Whatever is is right—I'll choose a task more humble. There surely is some useful aphere in which a portly duffer may do as much as though, with spear, he made a Prussian suffer. So I shall bum some martial chants while spading, raking, hoing; I'll cultivate my surinne plants, and keep my string beans growing." Most men are giad to bear the flag to any warstruck region, if they can ride on prancing mag, and bear a fighting legien. We cannot all went at they can ride on prancing mag, and bear a fighting legien. We cannot all went to hang a banner on the wall and do things for the nation.
